BRAVNY ENGLISH BOYS

The World Beaters of the London A. C. Team.

SOON TO MEET OUR BEST ATHLETES

The Great International Contest to Occur
In New York Sept. 21, When the New York A. C. Will Meet the Visitors—Records of the Plucky Britons.

The sporting rivalry between England and the United States is stronger than ever this year, and 1895 will probably pass into history as the great year of international athletics. Early in the year Cornell made her disastrous attempt to beat the English crews at Henley, and at present plucky Britons are now in this country endeavoring to prove their superiority.

preman in three different sports. Lord Dunraven is after yachting honors with his Valkyrie III, Oxford and Cambridge are endeavoring to prove that Englishmen, even when away from home, can play better cricket than Americans, the London Athletic club has sent a team of crack athletes to meet the best men the New York Athletic club can muster on track and field, and Cambridge has a team on American soil training for a great international match with Yale for the athletic championship of the college world.

Sept. 21 is the time and Manhattan field, New York, the place for the great international contest between the London A. C. and the New York A. C. As originally planned the struggle was to be a club affair between the best men who were bona fide members of the respective clubs before the New York A. C. sent its challenge, but the scope of the contest has been broadened so that the London team practically contains the best men in England, while the New York team contains the flower of America's athletic manhood.

The London A. C. men are captained by Godfrey Shaw and trained by the old timer Jack White. Three of the great English athletes, E. C. Bredin, who has a half mile record of 1 minute 55 seconds and quarter figures of 48 1/2 seconds; J. E. Bacon, who established a world's record on Aug. 19 of 6 feet 4 1/2 inches for the high jump, and F. E. Bacon, who, until recently, held the world's amateur record of 4 minutes 17 seconds, did not come, F. E. Bacon because other members of the team refused to consider him a "gentleman amateur" and declined to visit America in his company. Bacon has been a soldier for pay, has no visible means of support and is looked upon as a professional by many members of the team. The names of the London A. C. men who will compete and the events in which they will participate are as follows:

100 yards run.....Bradley and Downer
220 yards run.....Downer and Jordan
440 yards run.....Fitzherbert and Jordan
880 yards run.....Horan and Lutyens
1 mile run.....Horan and Lutyens
3 mile run.....Horan and Lutyens
120 yards hurdles.....Shaw and Oakley
Running broad jump.....Williams
Putting 16 pound shot.....Watson
Throwing 16 pound hammer.....Watson

Robertson and Johnstone

There are 11 events in all, and the team winning six or more will be declared winner of the contest.
C. A. Bradley, the English sprinter, is a robust young fellow, with sinews of steel. He is a member of the Huddersfield Cricket and Athletic club as well as the London Athletic club. He has held the English amateur championship for 100 yards since 1892. He has a record of 9 4-5 seconds, and he is credited with 10 seconds on several occasions. He is a Yorkshire man by birth, and since 1890 has captured prizes worth $6,875, the best trophy of them all being the Bingley vase, which he had to win successfully three years before it became his absolute property. This vase is worth $1,125. Bradley is a hard trainer and leaves the mark like a thunderbolt. He has run 120 yards in 11 3-5 seconds and can run at top speed up to 150 yards, but his best distance is 100 yards.

A. R. Downer, the other sprinter, is a member of the Scottish Pelicans and the London Athletic club. His record for the 100 yards dash is 9 4-5 seconds. He won the Scottish amateur championship at 100 yards, 220 yards and 440 yards from 1893 to 1895 inclusive. Bradley beat him out in the English championships in some of the best races seen in England this year. On the other side Downer is credited with being the fastest man in the world at any distance from 150 yards to 800 yards. G. Jordan of Oxford university and the London Athletic club, said to be a particularly fast man at 220 yards, will be Downer's understudy for the 100 yards event.

Opposed to Bradley and Downer in the 100 yards dash will be John V. Crum, the Iowa wonder who has done the distance in 9 4-5 seconds, and Wefers, C. W. Stager and Tommy Lee, all 10 second men. Crum has never yet met his equal, except in the person of Wefers, who defeated him in a trial race Sept. 7, but Bradley and Downer should be able to give him a good argument, to say the least.

W. Fitzherbert of Trinity Hall and London Athletic club has a record of 49 3-5 seconds in the quarter mile run and has lowered the colors of E. C. Bredin this year. He won the quarter mile at the Cambridge sports this year, and also at the Oxford-Cambridge games, and again at the amateur championships. Jordan, who may run in the quarter mile race, won in the Oxford-Cambridge and Oxford-Yale games last year, but was beaten out by Fitzherbert this year.

In this event the New York A. C. is particularly weak. George Sands seems to be the club's best man, but he is not considered in Fitzherbert's class.

In the half mile Charles Kilpatrick of the New Yorks will have F. S. Horan and E. J. Wilkins to beat. Horan ran second to Bredin in the English amateur championships, being beaten a few yards in 1:56. He is the captain of the Cambridge team that will meet Yale, but is also a member of the London A. C. The Englishmen have as much chance of winning the half mile race as we have of landing the quarter mile. Kilpatrick has won the intercollegiate and A. A. U. championships, capturing the latter in 1:55 4-5.

In the one mile the visitors have a strong man in W. E. Lutyens. He has gone the distance in better than 4 minutes 20 seconds, but he will hardly be in it with Tommy Connell of the New Yorks. Connell is running in rare form and recently broke the world's record for a mile by negotiating the distance in 4 minutes 15 3-5 seconds, over four seconds better than Lutyens's best public performance. Besides Connell, the New York A. C. has George Jarvis and George Orton for the mile event. Both are remarkably fast men. Lutyens won the mile at the London Athletic club-Cambridge sports this year, but he finished second to Bacon in the amateur championships.

F. S. Horan of Trinity Hall, Cambridge, and the London Athletic club, has a record of 14 minutes 44 1/2 seconds for the three mile run. He has won that race in the Oxford-Cambridge games since 1892. H. A. Munro defeated him in the London Athletic club-Cambridge sports this year. Sidney Thomas, the other Englishman entered for this event, holds the world's record of 14 minutes 24 seconds. Opposed to them will be Connell and Orton, or Connell and E. C. Carter, all famous distance men. Carter has been noted for ten years as a cross-country runner, and in 1893-4 won the ten mile American championship. Although pitted against Englishmen, he is himself a Briton and was born in Bristol, England.

G. B. Shaw and W. J. Oakley will be the English representatives in the 120 yards hurdle race. Shaw is the holder of the English amateur record of 15 minutes 4-5 seconds. He is a veteran at the game, having won the English championship as far back as 1886. He has held the championship for 1893, 1894 and 1895. Oakley, besides being a member of the London Athletic club, belongs to Christ Church college, Oxford university. He won the hurdles at the Oxford-Cambridge sports and finished second to Shaw in the English championships this year.

Stephen Chase, the hurdler of the New Yorks, has a record of 15 minutes 3-5 seconds, which is just one-fifth of a second faster than Shaw's best mark. Chase won the 120 yards hurdle championship of the United States and Canada in 1894.

R. W. Williams, the English high jumper, has cleared six feet, but he will hardly be a worthy foe for M. F. Sweeney of the New Yorks. Sweeney holds the world's record for the running high jump and very recently got over the bar at a height of 6 feet 5 1/2 inches, the best performance of the kind on record.

W. J. Oakley and W. Mendelson are the English running broad jumpers. Oakley has cleared 22 feet 11 inches, which ties Sheldon's record, but does not equal that of Bloss, of 22 feet 11 1/2 inches. Mendelson's best record is 22 feet 5 1/2 inches. Sheldon and Bloss are the New York men.

G. S. Robertson and Johnstone are the English 16 pound hammer throwers. Robertson has the best record, that of 116 feet 7 inches. He has won this contest at the Oxford-Cambridge sports from 1893 to 1895, inclusive. J. S. Mitchell, the New York man, holds the world's record of 145 feet 3 1/2 inches, while Hickok of Yale has done 135 feet 7 inches, and H. B. Cross of Yale 135 feet. In this event it is all over but the shouting, for the New Yorks are sure winners if Mitchell remains alive and well.

Another sure thing for the New Yorks is the 16 pound shot contest. A. J. Watson, England's mainstay for this event, has a record of 37 feet, but George R. Gray, the New York champion, has done 47 feet, holds the world's record and is considered invincible. Of the 11 events the New York A. C. may win the high jump, broad jump, 16 pound hammer, 16 pound shot, half mile run, one mile run and three mile run, seven events in all, and more than enough to win, but Sept. 21 may tell a different story.

The Bill Nye-Paul Potter Play.
Bill Nye and Paul M. Potter's brand new comedy, called "The Stag Party," is to have its first production Oct. 20 at the Park theater, Boston. Mr. Potter is still in Europe, tribling over Boerboom Tree, and nobody knows when he is going to return. The new piece is to go into rehearsal at the end of the month.

FINANCE AND COMMERCE.

New York Stock Market.

New York, Sept. 18.—Upon a moderate falling off as compared with yesterday's volume of business, the speculation today was much more erratic in its course. London prices for Americans showed advances ranging from 1/4 to 1 1/2 per cent., and some buying for foreign account was executed in this market. The actual engagements of gold for shipment to-morrow was only $250,000, a considerably less amount than had been expected. The sub-treasury was a gainer of $150,000 in gold as a result of the day's operations. The withdrawals for export were only $150,000, and the deposits aggregated $300,000. The shipments of currency for crop moving purposes, to the interior, from and including last Friday up to date, were $1,500,000. The speculation left off strong in tone.

Mrs. E. E. Davis, of San Miguel, Cal., says: "I am trying in a measure to repay the manufacturers of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for the great good their remedy has done me. For years I was a constant sufferer from weak lungs and bronchial asthma. My rest at night was disturbed by a hacking cough, so that I felt miserable the greater part of the time. Many remedies recommended by friends were tried, none of which proved suitable to my case. I did not experience any beneficial results until I began taking Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. After two bottles of the large size have been used I am pleased to state my health is better than it has been for years. The soreness has left my lungs and chest, and I can breathe easily. It has done me so much good that I want all who are suffering with lung troubles, as I was, to give it a trial." For sale by the Chas. Lyle Drug Company.

Points on Advertising!

Occasional advertising will bring occasional business—constant advertising brings constant business.It's a bad way to test the value of advertising by advertising something people don't want.Your advertisement is the news from your store. See that it is readable enough to command more than a casual glance.An ad. ought to attract attention by its typographical appearance, and then hold that attention by its logic.Funny ads. may amuse; but you're not in business for fun. Let the same business principles rule your ads. that control your store.
Truthfulness is a jewel that loses none of its preciousness in an advertisement.A man who makes false statements in his ads. isn't likely to be believed when he does tell the truth.

Faith in advertising has made many a man's fortune.

Every business man should insist upon his employees reading the firm's ads.Ads. won't sell goods, but they will bring people to your store.
When they do that they fulfill all the requirements of a good advertisement.When you advertise seek the best medium. The newspaper that reaches the greatest number of cash-paying customers is the best medium.
